ABOUT The PLACE

India's smallest state is also one of its most famous, with a justifiable reputation for carefree, sun-soaked fun. Yet the beaches and parties that dominate the headlines are far from the full story. From the Goan-Portuguese heritage sites and inland areas of extraordinary natural beauty to the wonderfully varied restaurant scene and the plethora of health and wellness services that have evolved from the days of hippy hedonism, Goa has an astounding array of experiences offer that can cater to every taste and desire.

For those of us perpetually confused between North Goa and South Goa, this might help - the state of Goa is divided into North Goa and South Goa.
